

Refund Policy

QSBC will not accept payment of more than $1,000 from each individual student prior to the commencement of the course. Following course commencement, we may require payment of additional fees in advance from the student but only such that at any given time, the total amount required to be paid which is attributable to tuition or other services yet to be delivered to the student does not exceed $1,500.

A refund will only be given where fees have already been paid in advance, within the above guidelines, and the student believes QSBC has not provided sufficient training and the student fails the assessment process or the student believes they have been misled.

If a student cannot complete the course they will not be liable for payment of any course fees not yet paid.

A full refund of fees will be made to the payer if training is cancelled by us for any reason.

Any student co-contribution fees that are paid under the Certificate 3 Guarantee Program or Higher Level Skills Program are non-refundable, unless:

- (a) a refund is to be given for any Credit Transfers; or
- (b) the student believes they have been misled.

An administration fee of $50 may be applicable for issuing replacement certificates/statements of attainment.

A student can request a refund of fees by contacting their trainer/assessor by email or in writing. That trainer/assessor needs to then contact management for processing. If a student does not receive a refund they are expecting, they can follow our complaints and appeals process.

Any approved refunds will be processed within 30 days of receiving the request from the student.
